Silke Goschler is an experienced Commercial lawyer advising national and multinational companies on the strategic positioning of their operative business, with a particular focus on the (re-)structuring of distribution systems (commercial agents, distributors, franchising, online trading) and leasing.

Her advice includes the drafting and negotiating of commercial contracts along the supply chain (procurement, logistics, production and distribution) as well as consumer protection law aspects. Silke advises in particular clients in the sectors of consumer goods and retail, industrial goods as well as insurance and financial services.

As a Commercial lawyer, Silke is particularly experienced in aligning legal requirements and commercial needs. Based on her experience from various secondments in different industries, she provides practice-oriented advice.

In out-of-court disputes, she accompanies her clients and, if necessary, supports them in the transition to contentious proceedings.

Silke Goschler is a member of the German Society for Distribution Law (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Vertriebsrecht e.V. (DGVR)).
