

Charlotte Hébert-Salomon

Counsel

charlotte.hebert-salomon@dlapiper.com

Paris

T: +33 1 70 75 78 60

F: +33 1 40 15 24 01

Charlotte Hébert-Salomon assists French and international clients both in litigation and transactional matters in various sectors (software, Internet, media, pharmaceuticals, energy, consumer goods, the leisure industry) on issues relating to intellectual property, IT and commercial law.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- French
- English

Professional Qualifications

- Avocat admitted to the Paris Bar

Prior Experience

- Before joining DLA Piper, Charlotte was an associate and then Counsel for more than ten years within renowned French full-service business law firms.

Recognitions

- Best Lawyers – Information Technology Law, Intellectual Property Law, and Leisure and Licensing Law – 2021-22
- IP Stars - Rising Star since 2018
- Legal 500 EMEA - Intellectual property: Copyright / Trade marks and designs / Patents - 2020

Education

- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Commercial Contracts
- Trademark and Copyright
- Antitrust and Competition

- Technology

French English

- Paris XI University, Master's Degree in Innovation, Communication and Culture Law – Specialization in Copyright on Digital Works
- Paris II University, Master's Degree in Business Law

Memberships

- APRAM
- INTA (Member of the Unreal Campaign Committee)
- MARQUES (Member of the European Trade Mark Law and Practice Team)

INSIGHTS

---

Publications

- Article: "The adjustment of time limits in intellectual property administrative and court proceedings", March 2020
- Article: « La loi Toubon et les marques déposées en langue étrangère », LinkedIn article, February 2020
- Article: « Secret des affaires : maîtriser le nouveau dispositif légal pour mieux anticiper les contentieux de propriété intellectuelle », Option Droit & Affaires, October 2019