Rebeka Hevesi is an associate of the Litigation and Regulatory group at DLA Piper Hungary. She graduated summa cum laude from the Faculty of Law at Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE) in 2014. Besides she also holds a degree in international relations (2012) from Corvinus University of Budapest.

She is specialized in complex commercial litigation and arbitration, litigation procedures of the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights. She also advises in matters related to European Union Law. She has been working as associate in various cross-border litigation and international arbitration matters for several years, particularly in the fields of IP, IT, pharma, aviation, media, administrative law, employment, construction, finance, and corporate M&A disputes.

Prior to joining DLA in 2021, Rebeka worked as a litigation associate in reputable international law firms and as a legal advisor at the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg for two years.

Besides her work, she lectures graduate students in civil procedural law at the University of Eötvös Loránd.
