Is the SFO fit for purpose?

4 June 2021

Following the conclusion of an eight year investigation, the Serious Fraud Office (SFO) suffered a blow last month as its case against two former Serco directors collapsed. This has drawn focus to the SFO's use of deferred prosecution agreements (DPAs), through which companies acknowledge criminal liability based on alleged wrongdoing committed by their employees, whilst those employees, who have subsequently been prosecuted for the same offence, have escaped liability at trial. This raises the question of whether companies under a DPA should have taken their chances with a formal prosecution hearing, and has commentators questioning the wider benefits of DPAs, as well as the SFO's recent performance.
