

Jacob Daniel Abrahams

Managing Attorney

jake.abrahams@dlapiper.com

Austin

T: +1 512 457 7068

F: +1 512 721 2268

Jake Abrahams concentrates his practice in the area of technology-related transactions.

He has drafted and negotiated a wide range of agreements, including software licensing agreements, distribution/reseller agreements, software-as-a-service (SaaS) agreements, original equipment manufacturer (OEM) agreements, services agreements, development agreements, and consulting agreements.

His practice also includes advising on intellectual property and technology issues arising from mergers, acquisitions, and reorganizations.

Jake's practice includes representation of public and private companies in the software, technology, cloud computing, e-commerce, social networking, mobile application, and hardware industries.

- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Technology Transactions and Strategic Sourcing

Admissions

- Texas

Prior Experience

Prior to joining DLA Piper, Jake worked at an Austin firm handling a variety of transactions for small to medium sized businesses.

Education

- J.D., University of Texas School of Law 2010
with honors
Associate Editor, Texas Journal of Oil, Gas, & Energy Law
- B.A., Philosophy, Rice University 2007

NEWS

DLA Piper advises Universal Technical Institute in acquisition of MIAT College of Technology

3 November 2021

DLA Piper represented Universal Technical Institute, a leading provider of transportation sector technical training, in its acquisition of MIAT College of Technology, a provider of vocational and technical training in high-demand fields.

DLA Piper advises Paradox in its acquisition of Traitify

23 August 2021

DLA Piper represented Paradox in its acquisition of Traitify.
