

Celia Johnson-Morgan

Associate

celia.johnson-morgan@dlapiper.com

Liverpool

T: +44 333 207 7667

F: +44 333 207 8952

M: +44 793 633 6289

Celia Johnson-Morgan has experience in both the UK and Middle East in the area of commercial dispute resolution, including international arbitration and litigation.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

Celia recently completed a six month secondment to the DLA Piper Middle East LLP Disputes team, based in Dubai.

Celia advises clients on complex, multi-jurisdictional disputes spanning a range of sectors including finance, aviation and hospitality.

- Advising a UAE-based and Cayman incorporated general partner of a Fund in respect of potential Dubai International Finance Centre proceedings including providing advice of substantive and procedural DIFC law.
- Advising a prominent Indian real estate developer in arbitration proceedings in the Dubai International Arbitration Centre relating to the construction of a high-value residential development in Dubai.
- Advising one of the world's largest hotel groups in respect of an LCIA arbitration regarding the termination of long term franchise agreements in Germany.
- Advising Liverpool Football Club on its successful defence of a claim brought by an agent for the alleged breach of an introducer agreement for non-payment of GBP1.2 million of commission. Judgment was handed down on 3 August 2020.

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Education

- University of Law (Bristol), Legal Practice Course and Msc in Law, Business and Management, 2018
- University of Newcastle, Bachelor of Laws (LLB), 2017