Daniel is an associate in DLA Piper's Global Trade and Government Affairs team and has extensive experience of advising sovereign states, international organisations and corporate clients on a wide range of contentious and non-contentious international trade law and public international law matters.

- Regulatory and Government Affairs

Daniel joined the team having completed a bachelor's degree in International History at the LSE and a bachelor's degree in Law at the University of Law. Whilst studying, he worked for a Member of Parliament as a researcher as well as for a UK political party.

During his training contract, Daniel was seconded to DLA Piper's Dubai office.

- Advising a number of clients on the mechanics of European Free Trade Agreements and the potential impact of Brexit on customs, export control and sanctions regulations
- Providing sanctions compliance advice and public international law support to an African sovereign wealth fund
- Instructed by Secretary of State for FCO represented by the British High Commission, Ottawa and UK Trade and Investment (UKTI) to produce a detailed analysis of the EU-Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA). Dan assisted with the key deliverable from this instruction, a comprehensive Business Opportunities Report which identifies opportunities for UK businesses emanating from CETA across many sectors
- Acting on a long-term basis for an African central bank in relation to its public international law, international regulatory compliance /standards and public affairs needs
- Assisting a UK manufacturer to develop a clear and usable internal policy document which can be used to export control obligations on a contract-by-contract basis
- Advising a number of international financial institutions, manufacturers, trading houses and consultancy companies on the scope and application of measures restricting the supply of goods and services, financing and technical assistance in relation to jurisdictions such as Russia, Iran, Syria and Libya

Westminster Watch: Why you need to understand the retained EU Law (Revocation and Reform) Bill

17 October 2022

On 22 September 2022, the Retained EU Law (Revocation and Reform) Bill (the Bill) was introduced into Parliament. The Bill will facilitate the amendment, replacement or repeal of retained EU law (REUL) by the end of 2023 and assimilate all remaining REUL into UK law without the special features of EU law features continuing to apply.
