

Mark Keeling

Partner

mark.keeling@dlapiper.com

Sheffield

T: +44 0114 283 3389

M: +44 0789 478 4525

Mark Keeling is a Real Estate lawyer with considerable experience in all aspects of transactional Real Estate including sales and acquisitions, landlord and tenant matters, deduction and registration of title, and large portfolio corporate and finance work.

Mark acts on behalf of land owners, landlords, tenants, funders and private companies and his practice primarily consists of advising large corporate occupiers in the manufacturing sector.

- Real Estate
- Industrials

- Advising a major landowner in relation to a former industrial site on the River Thames with a developed value of in excess of £300m
- Completing the voluntary registration of a 3000 acre site for a major industrial client
- Acting for an international manufacturing business on the disposal of one of their major sites to a Thai manufacturer for circa £350m
- Advising a major UK Retail business in relation to the lease of their UK Manufacturing and Distribution Centre

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

NEWS

DLA Piper advises Tarmac on its agreement with Forth Ports to create the UK's largest construction materials terminal at Tilbury2

21 May 2021

DLA Piper has advised Tarmac in relation to its agreement with Forth Ports for the creation of the UK's largest construction materials terminal at the new T2 facility at the Port of Tilbury in Essex, England.
