Krzysztof Kycia is the Co-Managing Partner and head of the Litigation & Regulatory department in DLA Piper's Warsaw office.

Krzysztof provides advice on civil and commercial disputes. He focuses on resolving various types of legal disputes both in court proceedings and through alternative dispute resolution, ie through arbitration and other non-standard methods enabling resolution at an early stage.

He deals with contractual and tortious liability issues, as well as matters related to bad debt collection.

Krzysztof has extensive experience in commercial matters, including disputes between shareholders, the protection of personal interests and unfair competition. He also represents clients in the course of bankruptcy and restructuring proceedings, and provides advice on internal audits and the development of internal compliance procedures.
