

Florencia Labarile

Junior Associate
f.labarile@dlapiper.ar

Buenos Aires
T: +5411 4114 5500
Office +5411 4114 5521

María Florencia Labarile is a lawyer, graduated from the Faculty of Law of the University of Buenos Aires in 2019. She works in the litigation department, focusing in labor law, commercial litigation and bankruptcy of DLA Piper (Argentina), and collaborates as assistant professor in the subject 'Bases Privadas del Derecho Constitucional' of the Faculty of Law of the University of Buenos Aires. She joined our law firm as paralegal since her first years of study.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- Spanish

Florencia works in the litigation department, focusing in labor law, commercial litigation and bankruptcy of DLA Piper (Argentina), and collaborates as assistant professor in the subject 'Bases Privadas del Derecho Constitucional' of the Faculty of Law of the University of Buenos Aires.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations
- International Arbitration
- Cross-Border Litigation

- Financial Services
- Government Contracting
- Industrials
- Mining
- Energy and Natural Resources
- Technology

English Spanish

Admissions

- Argentina

Education

- Law studies in the Faculty of Law of the University of Buenos Aires.