- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations
- International Arbitration

- Representing two prominent Indian real estate entrepreneurs in an LCIA (India) Rules arbitration in relation to claims totaling USD1 billion, relating to several large-scale real estate projects in India and interests in companies incorporated in the UK, BVI and Mauritius
- Representing a prominent Indian real estate entrepreneur in a USD400 million dispute involving entities incorporated in the Isle of Man, BVI, Mauritius, India and the US. Advising the client in relation to parallel proceedings in the London Commercial Court and an LCIA arbitration seated in Singapore
- Advising an international luxury brand company on a shareholder dispute with its local partner in the UAE, Kuwait and Qatar. In particular, on the strategy they should follow in their dispute with their local partner, taking into account an LCIA arbitration in London and local proceedings in the Dubai courts
- Representing a Fortune 50 company in relation to an FCPA investigation by the US Department of Justice and Securities and Exchange Commission which spans several countries in the Middle East and involves several companies in the same industry
- Acting for the minority shareholder in a dispute relating to the operation and management of the Viceroy hotel in Dubai. This involved advising on an injunction obtained by Viceroy in the DIFC Courts, claims in the Dubai Courts, proceedings conducted by the Dubai Joint Judicial Committee and the impact of related proceedings in the Los Angeles Courts
- Advising the minority shareholder in a Saudi food delivery app in relation to a shareholder dispute. The majority shareholder was ultimately owned by a European holding company which was preparing for an IPO
- Representing the European subsidiary of a NYSE-listed company in a major dispute with a minority shareholder in an Abu Dhabi joint venture
- Advising a European litigation funder in relation to the recovery of USD50 million in various jurisdictions, including France, UK and the UAE

- Advising a London-based re-insurer in relation to a complex and multi-jurisdictional USD22 million indemnification claim that involved assets being confiscated in a politically volatile region
- Advising an international contractor on a c.USD600 million dispute relating to a desalination power plant in one of the GCC countries. This dispute involved Asian and GCC parties
