

Jue Jun Lu

Legal Director

juejun.lu@dlapiper.com

London

T: +44 (0) 207 153 7292

F: +44 (0) 207 796 6666

M: +44 (0) 7738 295 809

Jue Jun Lu is a Solicitor Advocate, with Higher Rights of Audience in the Higher Courts of England and Wales.

Jue Jun's practice focuses on cross-border litigation and international arbitration. She regularly acts in international disputes from a broad range of industry sectors including energy, infrastructure, commodities, telecoms and technology. Jue Jun has extensive experience in international commercial arbitration, having handled cases seated in a variety of locations including London, Dubai, Singapore, Hong Kong and Beijing and administered under the rules of all major international arbitral institutions, as well as in ad hoc proceedings.

Jue Jun is well versed in both English and Mandarin and is particularly experienced in handling China-related disputes. She currently serves as an Ambassador to the ICC's Belt and Road Commission.

Jue Jun is named by The Legal 500 in 2021 as a "Rising Star" in International Arbitration.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- Chinese (Mandarin)
- Chinese (Cantonese)
- Spanish

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations
- International Arbitration

- Energy and Natural Resources
- Infrastructure, Construction and Transport
- Technology
- Industrials

English Chinese
(Mandarin) Chinese
(Cantonese) Spanish

- Acting for a Chinese state-owned oil and gas conglomerate in a multi-billion US dollar LCIA arbitration arising out of its acquisition of an upstream oil and gas company in Canada
- Acting for a Chinese telecommunications equipment and systems provider in two LCIA arbitrations arising from its agency arrangements in Africa
- Advising a US electronic equipment manufacturer against a Chinese telecommunications conglomerate in a US$ 400 million claim relating to the manufacturing and supply of smartphone devices

- Acting for a UAE shipping services provider in six parallel LMAA arbitrations against a Chinese shipyard in relation to several shipbuilding agreements
- Advising a Greek oil refining company in relation to a potential claim under the Energy Charter Treaty against the government of a Mediterranean state
- Acting for a Pakistani petroleum procurement firm in an English court challenge of a partial final award following ad hoc arbitration proceedings against a Dubai-based energy trader in relation to the sale of gasoil
- Acting for an Omani state-owned operator of utilities services regarding an ICC arbitration and a related expert determination concerning events at a power plant in the Middle East
- Acting for a South African defence and aerospace manufacturer in ad hoc arbitration proceedings against the government of an African state in relation to a supply agreement
- Acting for a solicitor defendant in a £50 million fraud claim in the English High Court brought by over 500 individual investors following the collapse of certain tax efficient technology investment schemes
- Acting for an international sports agency in an ad hoc arbitration under Rule K of the Rules of The English Football Association concerning the representation of a Premier League football player

CREDENTIALS

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor-Advocate in England and Wales
- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Recognitions

- "Rising Star" for International Arbitration, The Legal 500, 2021

Education

- University of Liverpool, LL.B. (Hons) (First Class)
- BPP Law School, Legal Practice Course (Distinction)

Memberships

- ICC Belt and Road Commission, Ambassador

INSIGHTS

Publications

The ICC's 2020 Dispute Resolution Statistics

22 September 2021

The International Chamber of Commerce has recently published its annual Dispute Resolution Statistics for 2020. This article offers a summary of the key takeaways despite challenges posed by COVID-19.

A jurisdiction too far: The English Commercial Court declines to continue freezing injunctions in support of foreign and English seated arbitrations

26 June 2020

In Petrochemical Logistics Ltd & Axel Krueger v PSB Alpha AG & Konstantinos Ghertsos, the English Commercial Court declined to continue two freezing injunctions against the Defendants in support of both a London-seated LCIA arbitration and a Swiss-seated arbitration.

- The ICC's 2020 Dispute Resolution Statistics, 22 September 2021
- A jurisdiction too far: The English Commercial Court declines to continue freezing injunctions in support of foreign and English seated arbitrations, 26 June 2020
- Dispute resolution along the Belt and Road: what does the future hold?, Practical Law Arbitration Blog, 2 August 2018
- No Requirement for Security to Challenge Award Recognition and Enforcement, ICC Bulletin, May 2018