

Paweł Makaruk

Associate

pawel.makaruk@dlapiper.com

Warsaw

T: +48 22 540 78 84

Paweł Makaruk supports clients in proceedings involving concessions and tariffs, administrative proceedings, and advice on energy law.

Paweł works mainly on the projects from the area of energy law and legal advice in purchase/sales of the renewable energy installations. Moreover, he supports clients on numerous regulatory issues with regard to energy law. He has also advised on the potential implementation of MiFID II.

In addition, Paweł worked on matters from other areas of law: real estate, intellectual property, corporate and transportation.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- Polish
- English

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

- Energy and Natural Resources

Polish English

- Advising companies investing in renewable energy on matters regarding purchase or sale of SPVs holding rights to photovoltaic installations.*
- Advising a foreign entity on obtaining a license for trading in liquid fuels in Poland.*
- Drafting extensive due diligence reports of SPVs holding rights to photovoltaic installation or wind farms.*
- Participating in drafting of a due diligence report on leading Polish companies creating a new capital group.*

* Denotes experience from a previous firm

Professional Qualifications

- Advocate (Adwokat) registered with the Warsaw Bar Association of Advocates (Okręgowa Izba Adwokacka w Warszawie)

Prior Experience

Prior to joining DLA Piper he worked for leading companies from the power and liquid fuels industries as well as companies from renewable energy sector.

Education

- University of Warsaw, Master of Laws, 2018