

Andrew McIlhinney

Partner

andrew.mcilhinney@dlapiper.com

Leeds

T: +44(0)113 369 2141

M: +44(0)7725 063331

Andrew McIlhinney has extensive experience in advising trustees and employers of occupational pension schemes on all aspects of pensions law. In addition he advises providers of SIPP and SSAS arrangements and the trustees of master trusts.

- Employment
- Corporate

AREAS OF EXPERIENCE

- Scheme closures/partial closures to further benefit accrual
- Buy in/buy out of scheme liabilities
- Scheme mergers and bulk transfers (including transfers to master trust arrangements)
- Preparation of constitutional documentation and ongoing advice to SIPP providers

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Education

- University of Liverpool, BSc (Hons), Combined Sciences (2:1)
- College of Law, Chester LPC

Memberships

- Law Society

- Association of Pension Lawyers
- National Association of Pension Funds

INSIGHTS

Publications

Winter Economy Plan - Pensions

6 October 2020

The Chancellor has introduced his Winter Economy Plan, including the Job Support Scheme (JSS), which aims to fulfil a similar role to the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme (CJRS). In relation to pensions, we look at the key points.

Trustees and Sponsoring Employers of Pension Schemes - Key issues arising from COVID-19

8 April 2020

The COVID-19 outbreak is affecting workforces all across the UK and the world. The spread of the virus has had a substantial impact on financial markets and the productivity of companies and workforces. As a result, trustees and sponsoring employers of occupational pension schemes should consider the potential key issues.

Events

Previous

Webinar: UK pension contributions and coronavirus

22 May 2020

Webinar
