

Paul Mosser

Associate

paul.mosser@dlapiper.com

Chicago

T: +1 312 984 5751

F: +1 312 251 5754

Paul Mosser advises on a wide range of corporate and international tax matters including cross-border mergers and acquisitions, repatriation, integration, and attribute planning.

- Tax
- Transactional Tax Planning
- International Tax Counsel

Admissions

- District of Columbia
- Illinois

Prior Experience

Before joining DLA Piper, Paul worked for the Chicago National Office of a Big-Four accounting firm for five years concentrating on the corporate and international tax aspects of cross-border mergers and acquisitions.

Education

- LL.M., Tax, Georgetown University Law Center
- J.D., John Marshall Law School
- B.A., DePaul University

Memberships

- American Bar Association – Tax Section
- Chicago Bar Association – Tax Section
- DC Bar Association – Tax Section

Publications

Implications of recent Treasury Green Book tax proposals

29 March 2022

Taken together, the Treasury Department concludes that the proposals would raise more than $2.5 trillion over the ten-year budget cycle.

House tax proposal: significant statutory changes include raising corporate rate, overhauling international taxation system

21 September 2021

While the Senate is likely to cut back on some of the proposals, tax increases for business and individuals are expected to be enacted by Thanksgiving.

Senators Wyden, Brown and Warner release draft legislative language on international tax proposals

7 September 2021

This is the first round of draft international tax proposals currently being considered by Congress and the Biden Administration.

- Evaluating Complex Foreign-Parented Spin-Off Transactions Under Code Sec. 7874, International Tax Journal Vol. 46, No. 4, July 2020