Beata Mrozowska-Bartkiewicz focuses on insurance law. She has over twenty years of professional experience dealing with insurance law, and with pension funds and other financial market institutions.

Beata advises insurance companies, reinsurers, banks and insurance intermediaries on matters relating to the interpretation of insurance law, corporate law, entry into the Polish market, changes in the ownership of insurance companies, insurance portfolio transfers and administrative proceedings before the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (KNF), the Office for Competition and Consumer Protection (UOKiK) and other consumer and competition authorities.

She also has experience in drawing up documentation relating to the market launch of new insurance products, such as general terms and conditions of insurance, as well as agency and distribution contracts.

She completed the formal legal training required to practice as both a judge and a legal counsel.

Insurance Horizons

The Polish supervisor (KNF) has not provided any guidance, and no specific regime has been introduced concerning how UK insurers, who are no longer authorised in the EU, should run off existing policies and pay claims.
