

Christopher Ollech

Senior Associate

christopher.ollech@dlapiper.com

Cologne

T: +49 221 277 277 341

F: +49 221 277 277 111

Christopher Ollech focuses on national and international legal aspects of the energy industry.

Christopher has significant experience in relation to European and German regulatory matters, energy contractual matters and energy infrastructure projects. Specifically, he focuses on regulatory and contractual matters in the context of renewable energy and modern technologies.

In particular, Christopher assists clients in the field of transactions related to the energy sector. He also represents clients in administrative as well as in contentious proceedings.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- German

- Assisting project developers and investors in the context of renewable energy projects.
- Drafting and reviewing power and gas supply and trading agreements.
- Drafting and reviewing direct marketing contracts (Direktvermarktungsverträge) for the marketing of electricity generated in renewable energy installations.
- Assisting in the contractual and regulatory due diligence in the context of acquisitions of renewable energy installations and renewable energy companies, including operators of wind and solar installations, and battery storage companies.
- Advising network operators and market participants in relation to network connection, network access and fee regulation system.
- Advising network operators, energy companies, energy-intensive companies, investors and energy traders on the regulatory environment of the energy sector.
- Advising electric vehicle producers on the regulatory environment for charging infrastructure.

- Projects, Energy and Infrastructure
- Oil and Gas
- Power and Transmission
- Renewables
- International Trade, Regulatory and Government Affairs

- Energy and Natural Resources
- Technology

English German

Professional Qualifications

- Rechtsanwalt admitted with Rechtsanwaltskammer Cologne

Prior Experience

Christopher has gained inhouse experience in the energy industry during his secondment to a German transmission system operator.

Education

- Higher Regional Court of Hamm, Second State Examination, 2013
- University of Münster, First State Examination, 2009