

Anna Otkina

Partner

anna.otkina@dlapiper.com

Moscow

T: +7 (495) 221 4188

F: +7 (495) 221 4401

Anna Otkina has developed a strong reputation advising on corporate, commercial, regulatory, real estate and finance matters. Her work covers various sectors such as energy, transport and infrastructure, TMT, manufacturing and retail.

She focuses on the transport and infrastructure sectors and is involved in aircraft financing, shipping financing, airport and sea ports work and acquisition. Whilst much of Anna's recent work covers Russia and CIS, she has lead and handled numerous international matters across Continental Europe, North and South America and Asia.

- Corporate
- Asset Finance

English Russian

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- Russian

Prior Experience

Anna held various management roles at her previous international law firm, including acting as Deputy Head of Moscow office and Head of Corporate and Aviation.

Recognitions

Anna has been ranked for several years in a row as leading transport and aviation lawyer in Russia and with band 1-2 by Chambers and Legal 500.

Education

- Free University of Brussels, LL.M

- University of Georgia (USA), LL.M.
- Moscow State Institute of International Relations

INSIGHTS

Publications

Recent key ESG and green finance regulation changes in Russia

28 September 2021

In this legal update, we present a brief overview of the development and recent key regulatory changes on sustainable development and ESG (Environmental, Social, and Corporate Governance), green finance and green energy in Russia.

Lexology GTDT: Market Intelligence - Shipping - Russia edition

13 September 2021

DLA Piper is delighted to have contributed a chapter on Russia to the Lexology Getting The Deal Through - Market Intelligence - Shipping 2021 edition first published in September 2021.
