

Nick Panno

Associate

nicholas.panno@dlapiper.com

Northern Virginia

T: +1 703 773 4157

F: +1 703 773 5157

M: +1 330 307 1400

Nick Panno concentrates on intellectual property counseling, including foreign and domestic patent prosecution, patent litigation, patent licensing, IP due diligence and opinions on validity, infringement and patentability.

Nick primarily focuses on software, hardware, electrical and mechanical intellectual property. He has represented clients in patent matters involving a wide range of technologies, such as e-commerce, encryption, cyber security, social networking, telecommunications, network management, lighting, electronic train control and signaling, remote tracking and consumer electronics.

- Patent Prosecution and Strategic Patent Counseling

Admissions

- Virginia
- United States Patent and Trademark Office

Prior Experience

Nick has worked as a technology transfer and licensing associate for a Department of Defense Partnership Intermediary and as a control systems electrical engineer.

Education

- J.D., University of Toledo College of Law 2009
- B.S.E.E., Electrical Engineering, Pennsylvania State University 2004

Courts

- United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia

INSIGHTS

---

Publications

The AIA's one-year grace period - a trap for the unwary?

7 MAR 2013

---

NEWS

---

DLA Piper represents LCR Hallcrest LLC in sale to SpotSee

28 December 2020

DLA Piper represented LCR Hallcrest LLC, Hallcrest Group Limited, Themographic Measurements Limited, and Enterprise One, Inc. in its sale to Harbour Group and its subsidiary ShockWatch, Inc., doing business as SpotSee.

---