

Préjudice corporel

DLA Piper's Personal Injury Law practice handles a variety of unique and complex personal injury cases. Notably, our group has secured our clients some of the largest judgments awarded in Canada.

Our lawyers are seasoned litigators with experience at all levels of court and exceptional skills in alternative dispute resolution approaches such as arbitration, mediation and negotiation.

We have particularly focused on unusual cases requiring the application of sophisticated investigative and analytical skills to establish liability and creative approaches to the assessment of damages where the client's circumstances pose unique challenges.

We handle a broad spectrum of personal injury cases, including:

- Tort claims
- Fatal accident
- Motor vehicle
- Disability
- Medical negligence
- Wrongful birth/death
- Physical and sexual assault
- Accident benefit
- Class action
- Occupier's liability
- Subrogated claims
