Beatrix Pólya joined the Litigation & Regulatory group in June 2019.

In the past, she has practiced different aspects of commercial law at a multinational company and several innovative SMEs in intern and junior positions.

Besides her law studies, she has furthered her knowledge in cross-border litigation and international arbitration through moot courts and a long-term internship at a leading international law firm.

Her areas of practice include cross-border disputes, civil law proceedings, administrative litigation and international investment arbitration.
