

Matteo Primoli

Lawyer

matteo.primoli@dlapiper.com

Milan

T: +39 02 80 618 1

F: +39 02 80 618 201

Matteo Primoli advises national and international clients on a number of employment matters, both contentious and out of court, including the management of the business.

In particular, he focuses on the following: employment agreements; contentious matters; day-by-day assistance related to the management of employment relationships (disciplinary proceedings, transfers, etc.); union procedures (transfer of company, collective dismissals, etc.); health and safety matters; legal assessments and due diligence on all employment matters.

Matteo is a Lawyer in the Employment department and is based in the Milan office.

• Employment

• Industrials

Italian English

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- Italian
- English

-
- Matteo has participated in auditing activities related to the verification of countless malpractices carried out by the management of an important company operating in the field of information technology. Matteo also participated in the subsequent out-of-court disciplinary procedures that led to the dismissal of the majority of the company's management and consequent claims.

Professional Qualifications

- Avvocato admitted to the Milan Bar

Prior Experience

Before joining DLA Piper, Matteo worked with leading Italian and international law firms.

Recognitions

- Matteo is a trustable lawyer with who it is always a pleasure to work. He is always swift and technically precise. He is able to immediately understand our business needs issues and he is indeed technically well prepared to find the best solution together with the client (legal community Labour report 2018)

Education

- Law degree, University of Teramo, cum laude, 2013
- School of High Education in Employment Law, Industrial Relations and Social Security Law AGI - Avvocati Giuslavoristi Italiani (Association of Italian Employment Lawyers), 2017
- Matteo has participated in the DLA Pro Bono program “Know Your Rights”, for refugees and migrants in Italy.