Recent splits within the Delaware courts: Are third-party releases consensual for nonvoting creditors and equity holders?

6 October 2020

When a debtor confirms a chapter 11 plan, section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code allows the debtor to discharge its liabilities. The discharge is limited to debtors, and section 524(e) of the Bankruptcy Code specifically provides that the discharge does not affect the pre-confirmation liability of non-debtor entities. To close the loop, chapter 11 plans typically contain releases for third parties from claims related to the debtor or the restructuring process. Although limited in scope, these releases have an effect similar to discharge and are often key to a plan's success.

Superior Court of Québec renders omnibus order to provide procedural flexibility amidst COVID-19

15 MAY 2020

The unique situation created by the COVID-19 pandemic and the measures implemented to contain the spread of the virus has severely disrupted the economy, and as a consequence, has made it increasingly challenging for debtors to fulfill their obligations. The situation has also made it arduous for all parties involved in insolvency proceedings to comply with the statutory deadlines set by the BIA. While a jointly issued Suspension Order by the Chief Justice of Québec and the Québec Minister of Justice suspends the extinctive prescription and forfeiture periods in civil matters, as well as civil procedure deadlines until the expiry of the declared public health emergency, unfortunately, it does not apply to insolvency matters. Following on an application by the Superintendent of Bankruptcy of Canada, The Superior Court of Québec rendered an omnibus order to provide much needed procedural flexibility.
