

Maxine Rigot

Junior Associate

maxine.rigot@dlapiper.com

Amsterdam

T: +31 (0) 20 5419 359

M: +31 (0) 62 3608 466

Maxine Rigot advises clients on international and EU VAT- aspects, as well as other indirect taxes such as Dutch real estate transfer tax.

Next to this she is also active in our pro bono sector, specifically focusing on international direct and indirect taxation.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- Dutch

- Tax
- International Tax Counsel

English Dutch

Education

- Leiden University, Tax Law (LL.M.), 2020
- Leiden University, Tax Law (LL.B.), 2017
- Leiden University, International Business Law (LL.B.), 2017

Publications

Dutch sustainable energy subsidies and energy taxes

12 October 2021
Real Estate Gazette

In order to reach the targets set at COP21 and achieve zero carbon emissions by 2050, the Dutch government has decided to provide substantial subsidies and tax incentives for investments. This article gives an overview of Dutch sustainable energy initiatives in real estate.

Supreme Court: Dutch RETT may be due on acquisition of self-storage company

16 April 2021

On April 16, 2021, the Dutch Supreme Court set aside the ruling of the Higher Court that the acquisition of the shares in an entity that primarily rents out storage space (i.e., self-storage entity) is not subject to Dutch Real Estate Transfer Tax (RETT).

Dutch Customs Authorities announce new set of measures in light of coronavirus

30 March 2020

On Thursday 26 March 2020, additional measures have been announced given that the DCA foresees many companies may temporarily be unable to meet their payment obligations under customs regulations and/or fail to comply with all deadlines and customs formalities.
