

Márk Rózsavölgyi

Junior Associate

mark.rozsavolgyi@dlapiper.com

Budapest

T: +36 1 510 1100

F: +36 1 510 1101

Márk Rózsavölgyi has joined the Litigation and Regulatory practice group in August 2019.

Márk is an ex-programmer and previously worked at multiple international law firms. He has significant experience in dealing with competition, IT and intellectual property related cases.

His main areas are Competition law, Compliance regulations, IT and intellectual property law.

Márk Rózsavölgyi is the winner of the Hungarian round at Global Legal Hackathon 2019, and won the annual award of the European Communities Trademark Association in 2018.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- Hungarian
- English

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations
- Antitrust and Competition
- Capital Markets

Hungarian English

Recognitions

- Legal 500, 2020, Dispute Resolution, (Team): Tier 1
- Legal 500, 2018-19, Dispute Resolution, (Team): Tier 2
- Chambers Europe, 2017-20, Dispute Resolution (Team): Band 2
- Chambers Global, 2017-20, Dispute Resolution, (Team), Band 2

Education

- Pazmany Peter Catholic University, Budapest, Hungary, Faculty of Law, JD

Publications

- "The Effect of BEPS on Harmful Tax Competition", thesis, 2019
- "The Essential Role of Trademarks in selective Distribution Systems" (co-author), 2018