DLA Piper provides the full range of tax services that address the challenges of international commerce and business operations.

With more than 380 tax advisors in offices throughout the world, we help multinational companies address the complex challenges of international commerce and business operations as well as manage and resolve tax disputes.

Companies operating in the global economy experience complex tax issues, both in their home country and in the jurisdictions in which they do business; this requires a coordinated global delivery of services incorporating both knowledge of national legislation, including tax treaties, as well as the appropriate international perspective.

Our global tax group also assists clients in structuring a wide range of transactions, from private equity deals to corporate acquisitions and disposals.

We provide these international tax services while at the same time offering clients the benefits of the attorney-client and work-product privileges.

Our tax lawyers draw upon the experience of colleagues in numerous areas of law, including intellectual property and technology, corporate and finance, real estate, employment and employee benefits.

In addition, DLA Piper's practices in such areas as regulatory and EU competition, public affairs and government affairs further strengthen the capabilities of our tax practitioners, resulting in fully integrated advice to our clients.

19 May 2021

During the year 2020, 156 requests for initiating a Mutual Agreement Procedure (MAP) under the double tax treaties concluded by Luxembourg were filed with the Luxembourg tax authorities (LTA) by taxpayers. This procedure, enabled by Article 25 of the OECD Model Tax Convention (or similar tax convention provisions), is a tool, independent of domestic legal remedies, allowing taxpayers to seek resolution of a double taxation situation by the competent tax authorities. Indeed, although double tax treaties by their very nature attempt to address such issues, an individual may be required by personal circumstances to file a MAP in order, inter alia, to resolve a dual tax residence situation.

The Wellcome Trust (C-459/19) case involved a charitable organisation (Wellcome Trust Limited) which used the services of investment managers to assist it in managing its large endowment portfolio.

Country Specific: UK

31 July 2020

The UK tax authority has published a note explaining that its internal working arrangements as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic have led to VAT refunds to some overseas (non-EU) businesses (under the Overseas Refund Scheme (historically known as 13th Directive claims)), being made outside its objective of making the refund within six months of the submission deadline of 31 December.

Country-specific: Italy

31 July 2020

The Legislative Decree dated 1 June 2020, No. 45, concerning the implementation of EU Directive No. 2017/2455, amending the VAT Directive and Directive No. 2009/132/EC as regards certain value added tax obligations for the supply of services and distance selling of goods, was published in the Official Journal (Gazzetta Ufficiale) No. 145 of 9 June 2020 and entered into force since 10 June 2020.

Court of Justice of the EU

31 July 2020

In Veronsaajien oikeudenvaltayksikkö (Service d'hébergement en centre de données) (Case C-215/19) the Court (proceeding to judgment without an Advocate General opinion) has said that a supply of hosting computer servers in a computer centre, did not amount to an exempt supply of leasing land nor could the service be regarded as connected with land, (the place of supply of which would be the location of the property).

EU

31 July 2020

As part of its package to aid economic recovery, the European Commission outlined several VAT initiatives to be formally proposed and implemented between now and 2024. They included:

GST to be removed from Bitcoin transactions – how best to fix the "double taxing" of digital currency?

1 APR 2016

The Treasurer, Scott Morrison, recently announced that the Government is committed to working with the FinTech industry on legislative solutions for the GST "double tax" issues that can arise on domestic transactions involving digital currencies such as Bitcoin.

In this update we outline the issues that the Government and industry will need to consider as a part of any reform process. Given the "Netflix Tax" is intended to apply from 1 July 2017, and would apply to relevant inbound supplies of digital currency, any reforms should ideally commence prior to that date.
