Jacob Thomsen provides advice within commercial law to Danish as well as foreign enterprises, focusing particularly on insurance law, the law of damages and dispute resolution.

Within the field of insurance law, Jacob deals primarily with commercial insurance.

He has profound knowledge of the conditions of commercial and product liability insurance and has, moreover, been involved in product recall insurance, product contamination insurance, directors and officers liability insurance, professional liability insurance, crime insurance, warranty and indemnity insurance, buildings and contents insurance, and travel insurance.

Jacob has participated in the resolution of a number of lawsuits and arbitration proceedings. In that connection, he has gained extensive experience in handling proceedings relating to insurance coverage and contractual as well as non-contractual damages, including very comprehensive cases concerning management and auditor liability.
