

Tracey Gann Turner

Senior Counsel

tracey.turner@dlapiper.com

Baltimore (Mount Washington)

Baltimore (Downtown)

T: +1 410 580 4278

F: +1 410 580 3278

M: +1 443 224 0268

Tracey Gann Turner has tried cases before judges and juries in both state and federal courts. Her primary practice areas are professional malpractice, products liability defense, mass torts and complex commercial litigation. Her clients have included health care providers, attorneys, financial institutions, insurers, colleges, pharmaceutical manufacturers and other major corporations.

Tracey serves as DLA Piper's National Chair of Litigation Training. She also serves on the Baltimore Office Pro Bono Committee. She is a long-time volunteer for DLA Piper's Baltimore Office Signature pro bono project, Advancing Education's Promise. In 2016, Tracey was honored to receive the Judge Robert M. Bell Award from the Pro Bono Resource Center of Maryland for her exemplary pro bono service.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations
- Class Actions
- Product Liability, Mass Torts and Product Stewardship

- Healthcare
- Life Sciences

- Representation of major MR contrast agent manufacturer in matters involving claims of nephrogenic systemic fibrosis in MDL and state court proceedings
- Representation of major pharmaceutical manufacturer in connection with class certification proceedings and individual lawsuits alleging personal injuries related to the use of hormone therapy (HR)
- Representation of major pharmaceutical company in individual lawsuits alleging serious cardiac and cardiopulmonary injuries as a result of the use of diet drugs
- Representation of leading pharmaceutical manufacturer in defense of nationwide product liability matters involving popular prescription anti-inflammatory medications
- Dismissal of claims against a major medical institution based on plaintiff's failure to comply with requirements of Maryland Health Care Malpractice Claims Act
- Co-counsel on behalf of multi-billion dollar technology and services company in a worldwide class action brought over mammography machines
- Plaintiff's jury verdict in survival action set aside and judgment entered for our client based upon post-trial motion asserting inadequate expert testimony or other proof of proximate causation. Affirmed on appeal

- Summary judgment on behalf of hospital and physicians sued by former patient alleging permanent injury and disability as a result of hernia surgery
- Dismissal of claims against health care providers based on plaintiffs' failure to comply with requirements of Maryland Health Care Malpractice Claims Act. Affirmed on appeal
- Defense jury verdict in favor of hospital accused of medical negligence by plaintiff who claimed nerve injury to leg, chronic pain and permanent inability to work following laparoscopic gynecologic surgery

CREDENTIALS

Admissions

- Maryland

Clerk Experience

- Honorable Catherine C. Blake (1989 – 1990), Magistrate Judge, United States District Court for the District of Maryland

Education

- J.D., University of Maryland 1989
with honors
Order of the Coif, Editorial Board, Maryland Law Review
- M. Ed., University of Maryland 1983
- B.S.N., University of Maryland 1976

Courts

- United States District Court for the District of Maryland

Memberships

- Permanent Member, Judicial Conference of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit
- American Bar Association
- Maryland Bar Association

INSIGHTS

Publications

10 recommended tips for remote depositions

1 June 2020

Courts increasingly are requiring remote depositions to mitigate delays during the pandemic.

10 recommended tips for remote mediations

1 June 2020

Some parties have been required to proceed with remote mediations to mitigate further delays during the pandemic.

NEWS

DLA Piper, Pfizer Inc. deliver training in legal writing and analysis to Zambian law students

17 August 2021

New Perimeter recently collaborated with Pfizer Inc. to deliver a training to approximately 70 LL.M. students at the University of Zambia School of Law (UNZA).
