

Up Again: UK

Welcome to our UK Up Again section, helping you get back to business after the disruption from COVID-19. Each tile below will take you to detailed FAQ and a feed of our latest content for that subject area. We're publishing articles and updates as the situation develops, so check back regularly.

People

A decorative graphic consisting of three horizontal bands of overlapping, wavy red lines on a dark blue background, positioned below the 'People' text.

Privacy and Data

Governance

Insurance

Government Relief and Tax

COVID-19 Construction Guide

Consumer Goods, Food and Retail

Financial Services

Industrials

INSIGHTS

Publications

Lockdown 3.0 – a summary of the UK government's latest measures and restrictions

11 January 2021

Prime Minister Boris Johnson addressed the nation to announce the latest restrictions to be imposed upon people living in England. We summarise the restrictions in this update.

Lockdown 2.0: a summary of the latest English Coronavirus Restrictions Regulations, published on 5 November 2020

12 November 2020

On 5 November 2020, the Health Protection (Coronavirus, Restrictions) (England) (No.4) Regulations 2020 came into effect. These new regulations are the UK government's response to a second wave of COVID-19 cases and enforce a new national lockdown for England until 2 December 2020.

UK redundancy-related payments: Common areas of tax difficulty and risk

16 September 2020

As a consequence of COVID-19, it is inevitable that many organisations will be examining their current workforce populations, seeking to restructure their business operations for a post-COVID-19 world and some will be considering closing down parts of their business operations altogether.
