

Jacques Wantz

Partner
GLOBAL CO-CHAIR, TAX

jacques.wantz@dlapiper.com

Luxembourg

T: +352 26 29 04 2635

Jacques Wantz focuses on international and corporate tax law, particularly on the tax aspects of cross-border private equity, real estate and debt investments and the tax structuring of regulated and unregulated investment funds.

Jacques also advises on the tax elements of corporate restructurings, securitization and capital markets transactions.

Jacques is Global Co-Chair of the Tax Group at DLA Piper.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- French
- German
- Luxembourgish
- Russian
- Spanish

- Tax

English French German
Luxembourgish Russian
Spanish

- Advising a leading European insurance company on the tax structuring of several SIF real estate funds and their downstream investment platforms.
- Advising a leading German insurance company on the tax structuring of a Luxembourg multi-compartments and multi-strategies RAIF and coordinating tax advice from investor jurisdictions.
- Advising a US real estate asset manager on the tax structuring of a pan-European core living open-ended real estate alternative investment fund and its downstream investment platform and coordinating tax advice from key investor and target jurisdictions.
- Advising a US asset manager specialized in financing energy and renewables projects on the tax impact of the Luxembourg anti-hybrid rules (ATAD2) on its flagship USD3 billion private debt fund.
- Advising on the tax structuring aspects of the setting up and launching of one of the first fintech funds backed by the Luxembourg

Future Fund and the European Investment Fund.

- Advising a French insurance group on the Luxembourg tax aspects of the acquisition of a real estate portfolio valued at above EUR1 billion held through a US structure.
- Advising a US financial services technology company on the reorganisation of its worldwide holding company structure in order to reposition it following the major US tax reform (Tax Cuts and Jobs Act).
- Advising a global content company creating, financing and distributing films, on the tax implications of a EUR500 million investment plan over five years for various deals and restructuring workstreams.
- Advising a US electronics company on a litigation before the Luxembourg administrative tribunal in relation to the use of the preferential tax regime on intellectual property assets.

CREDENTIALS

Professional Qualifications

- Avocat à la Cour registered with the Barreau de Luxembourg

Prior Experience

- 2019 to date: Partner, DLA Piper Luxembourg
- 2008-18: International Law Firm, Luxembourg

Recognitions

- Jacques was rated in Chambers and Partners as “Up and coming” and clients highlight his “ability to clearly communicate complex tax issues and solutions”, 2021-2021
- Jacques was rated in Leaders League as “Recommended”, 2020
- Jacques was rated in Chambers and Partners as “Up and Coming” and considered for interrogating “technical issues,” making sure “every stone has been uncovered” and for “co-ordinating very well on international reorganisation projects.”, 2020
- Expert Guides: Ranked as Rising Star in Luxembourg Tax, 2018-2020

Education

- Duke University School of Law, US, Master of Laws (LLM), Taxation/Business Law, 2010
- Université Montpellier I, France, Master II Droit du Commerce International, International Law and Legal studies, 2008

Memberships

- Member of the Tax committee of the American Chamber of Commerce in Luxembourg
- Member of the International Fiscal Association (IFA)
- Member of the Tax committee of the Invest Europe association
- Luxembourg Bar, joined May 2009, avocat à la Cour since 2012
- New York State Bar, joined January 2011
- Luxembourg Private Equity Association, involved in the Tax Committee
- Member of the LPEA Young Leaders Tax Working Group
- Member of the Tax Commission of the Luxembourg banking association, ABBL

INSIGHTS

Publications

Luxembourg 2021 Budget bill – changes for personal tax and domestic real estate investments

5 March 2021

In the on-going COVID-19 context, the Luxembourg Ministry of Finance has disclosed, on 14 October, several tax measures as part of the budget bill for the tax year 2021 ("Budget Bill").

Luxembourg 2021 Budget bill – changes for personal tax and domestic real estate investments

16 October 2020

In the on-going COVID-19 context, the Luxembourg Ministry of Finance has disclosed, on 14 October, several tax measures as part of the budget bill for the tax year 2021 (Budget Bill). The Budget Bill aims to increase tax and social equity as well as economic sustainability.

Jacques Wantz has written publications on:

- Corporate reorganizations in the US, Belgium and Luxembourg: What should you be considering? Getting the Deal Through (Lexology), April 2020
- The 2019 Luxembourg IFA report on Investment Funds
- Le régime fiscal des plans d'option sur acquisition d'actions - Evolutions récentes et perspectives, Bulletin Droit et Banque ALJB, n°62, 2018
- Implementation of the Amendments to the Parent-Subsidiary Directive (2011/96) into Luxembourg Law, European Taxation, 2016, N°1