Andi Zrza focuses on high-profile litigation (domestic and cross border), acting in various fields of commercial- and economic-public law.

Andi advises, represents and defends both public and private sector clients in a broad range of litigation matters, with a particular focus on the following core areas: complex civil and commercial disputes; regulatory and public procurement matters; EU competition and State aid disputes; large-scale PPP projects; construction matters and aviation law.

Andi completed an additional Master's degree in General Management at Vlerick Business School. Drawing on this background, he aims to solve complex business issues by providing solutions which are aligned with the client's business objectives.

In addition, Andi is also academically active as a Teaching Assistant Civil Procedure at the Catholic University of Leuven (KU Leuven), where he is a member of the Institute for Civil Procedure.
