Dutch job-related investment tax credit: Have you factored in the new tax incentive for your investment plans?

16 March 2021

As of 1 January 2021, the Netherlands introduced a new tax incentive scheme, the so-called job-related investment tax credit (baangerelateerde investeringskorting). In this publication, we explain how the BIK works, what investments qualify and how companies can apply.

Prohibition of public gatherings and international travel restrictions

7 April 2020

The considerable financial and organizational ramifications of COVID-19 that business may encounter are now addressed by governments, but what are the effects of the current measures on the substance requirements included in many provisions of (Dutch) tax law?

Gabriël van Gelder has (co)-authored several articles on international taxation and Dutch taxation aspects in leading (inter)national tax journals and magazines.
